

Beverly Rogers

A long-time Las Vegas resident, Beverly Rogers worked as an account executive in radio and television advertising sales and marketing for 15 years. She and her husband, Jim, own KVBC-Channel 3 in Las Vegas, as well as 12 other television stations in the West. Ms. Rogers has served on or worked with various nonprofit boards, including CLASS! Publications, Christmas in April, and Classroom on Wheels. She currently serves on the board of the Henderson Library Foundation and the newly formed Henderson Space and Science Center. Ms. Rogers holds a bachelor's in history and a master's in English from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.